WORK AND VOLUNTEERING EXPERIENCE

CS Teaching Assistant — *University of Oregon

April 2017- PRESENT

I act as mentor through aiding students in beginner and intermediate classes for Computer Science. I focus on helping them complete algorithm problems and projects for their courses.

Webmaster for Women in Computer Science — *Student Organization

September 2016 - PRESENT

I run the website for the student affiliated group at the University of Oregon that aims to contribute to the success of women in our schools CIS department. I'm extremely passionate about programming so I want to help increase participation and success in the CIS major.

EVENTS

Inspire: Women who Tech — *Bank of America

May 2017

Learned of the invaluable skills I will build if I am selected as a Technology Analyst intern for Bank of America.

PROJECTS AND CERTIFICATION

Personal Webpage — tayloremadden.com

A web page built and designed by me to present my resume, accomplishments, and portfolio. Built with HTML and CSS.

Front End Certification — *Free Code Camp

Equivalent to 375 hours of practice, all done on my own time. I built 11 different websites and practiced algorithm scripting. In particular, strengthened my knowledge of JavaScript and HTML/CSS.
